

Vijayinder Singh Rathore

(MBA, PGDPM, PGDCA,DISM,CLM(XLRI), PFSO)

Self is a hard core Security Professional with more than 22 years experience of Security & Risk management and Emergency Handling with Fortune Global 500 Companies dealing with Petrochemical, Refinery business and Oil & Gas.

Self had worked at world's largest grassroots refinery and petrochemical complex in security domain.

Self had comprehensive experience of designing and developing Physical security infrastructure and command and control center for Megha petrochemical units in private and PSU sector.

Also hand on experience in developing and implementing Security processes and guidances for access controls of men, material and vehicles, Emergency handling and video surveillance system.

Self possesses sound knowledge of developing policies and strategies for safeguarding the organizations and institutions against potential threats and risks by conducting Security surveys and Risk assessments in line with the international standards.

Self is certified ISO 9001, 14001 and 45001 auditor and trained in ISO 31000.

Self is certified Port Facility Security Office (PFSO) by IRS Mumbai and certified in Crime Detection and Investigation by FSL Gandhinagar.

Self possess substantial experience in leading the team during routine operations and crisis management.

I have had a privilege to manage some very challenging assignments which included planning and managing access control for more than one lac people during projects and hosting honorable PM's Visit at current site with stringent security protocols.